

FIRST U.S. FLAG!

The JOHN HULBERT FLAG! (1775)

Made at Bridgehampton before September 1775. Capt. John Hulbert, 3rd N.Y. Regiment of the Continental Army, carried it on a march from Bridgehampton to Ticonderoga. This flag is said to antedate the famous Betsy Ross flag by about nine months. It has thirteen, six-pointed stars arranged in the form of the crosses of St. George and Andrew. Now on permanent display at Suffolk County Historical Society at Riverhead.

Five Key Men To Head Divisions In Charge of Protecting Village

Former Mayor Cyril C. Ryan, named director of Civil Defense for Freeport by Mayor Robert L. Duxee, has completed the framework of the organization and now is seeking volunteers to serve in various capacities designed to prepare the village for any emergency that might occur should an enemy attack this area.

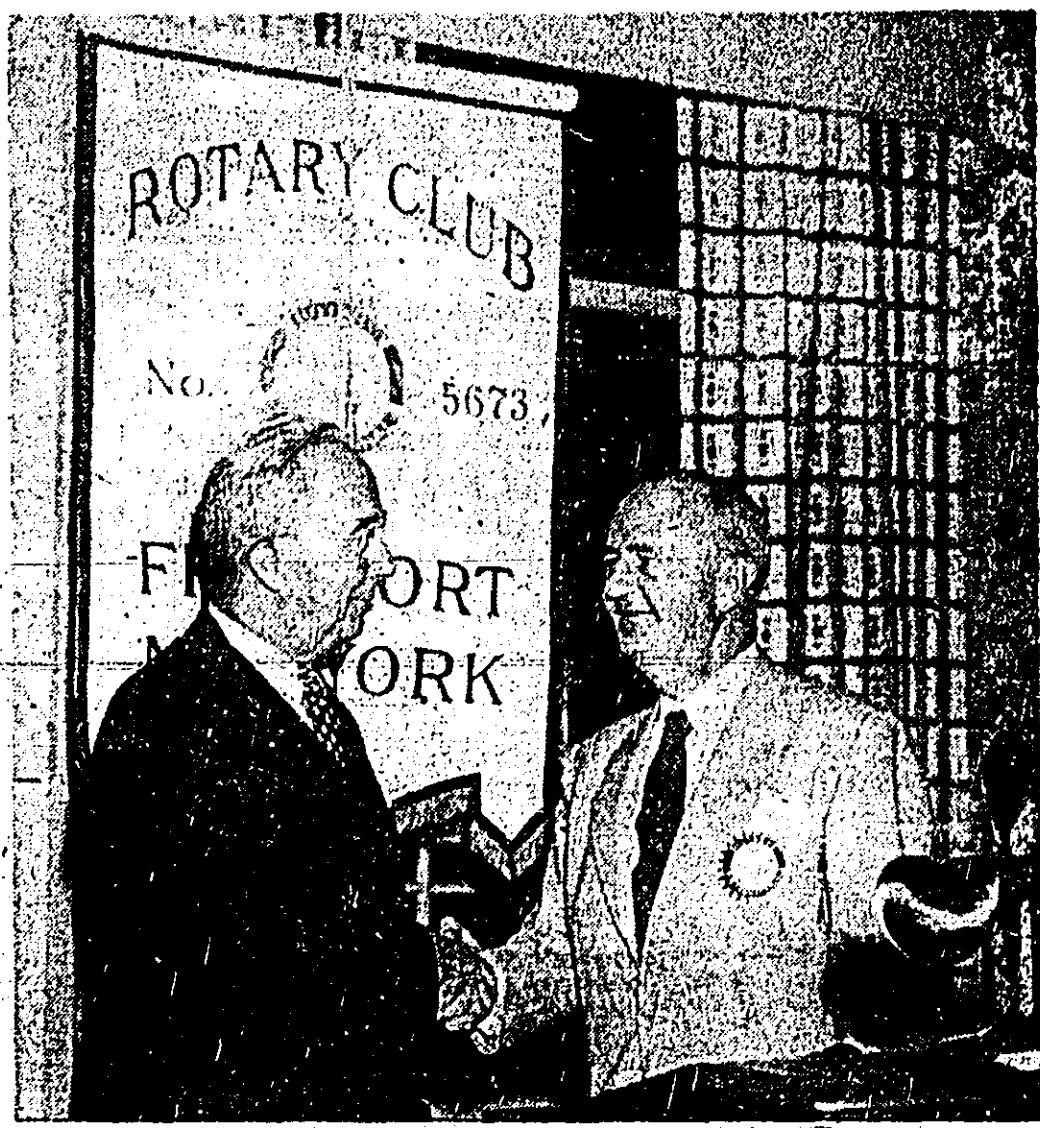

In compliance with instructions from Gen. C. W. Wickersham, director of Civil Defense for Nassau County, Mr. Ryan has named five key men to head the various divisions and two deputy directors, Samuel M. Gerber and F. Gordon Edwards.

Baldwin Librarian Interviews Authors

Helen M. MacDonald
Conducts WHLI Series
What Have You Written

Long Island is home to many prominent authors and Long Islanders will have the opportunity of hearing their celebrated neighbors talk informally over WHLI Tuesdays, at 2:45 p.m. The new series of programs, entitled "What Have You Written?" is sponsored by the Nassau County Library Association and Station WHLI. Miss Helen M. MacDonald, librarian of the Baldwin Public Library, who is interviewer for the series, had as her guest Tuesday, Paul Brown of Garden City, author and illustrator of children's books.

Mr. Brown, father of three children, said he started drawing horses at the age of 4 and has been going strong ever since. He has illustrated 80 books on horses and written and illustrated two dozen more. Mr. Brown works in his Garden City home, and for source material he attends all the horse and dog shows. He said he had been ten consecutive Grand Nationals but never cared who won; he is interested only in ideas, form and background.

Author Paul Brown, a captain of industry in the First World War and an authority on Army insignia, has also found time to take active part in local affairs, having served as a member of the Garden City Race Department for 38 years. He was recently written up in the profile section of the New Yorker magazine.

Miss MacDonald will have as her guest next Tuesday, Edwin Way Teale, Baldwinite and author of bird and animal books and articles.

50-Lap Midget Race To Wind Up Season

A 50-lap championship midget auto race, featuring ten crack Offenhausen chauffeurs and all other drivers who have captured main events at the Municipal Stadium, will be held tomorrow night. The ten-mile event will wind up the campaign for the doodlebugs locally until next season.

Dacing Director, Charley Ehler, Bob Disbrow, Bill Schneider, Nick Fornoro, Steve McGrath, Dutch Schaefer, Johnny Ray, Fred Mesker, Russ Kilar, Mike Nazarek, Hawley Knight, Ed. Sachs and other top chauffeurs of their calibre have been invited to compete for the castor cash and championship trophy.

Stock car racing will continue indefinitely on Tuesday and Saturday nights.

News Roundup NASSAU

PLEASANT FOR TAXPAYERS to contemplate are the 18 and 17 interest rates secured on $590,000 in town bonds and the new small animal shelter. This Franklin Square Water District and the new small animal shelter. This compares with the excellent 17 rate earned by the Village of Freeport on an issue of $825,000 for village improvements. Said Supervisor A. Holly Patterson: "You don't get such low rates unless your financial stability warrents them."

DESECRATIONS OF RELIGIOUS PROPERTY in Nassau are very few, and are restricted to no one denomination. Police investigations of every incident have resulted in the apprehension of thoughtless, mischievous youngsters, rather than bigoted, benighted adults. Only the fool fails to respect the religious beliefs of his neighbors.

HIGH TENSION WIRES that didn't present the dangers to a less populated Nassau that they now do, have been the discussion of recent conferences between Nassau County Executive Russel Sprague and officials of the Long Island Lighting Co. The county is insisting on a program to replace the overhanging high power lines under ground conduits as soon as possible. The recent Great Neck Accident was another argument for this.

CHILD SAFETY MONTH is being observed during September. It is appropriate especially with thousands of youngsters romping back to school. Motorists are urged to "take it easy." One of the most poignant articles ever published was the story of a careless driver who killed a child as soon as possible. The recent Great Neck Accident was another argument for this.

GLAD TO NOTE the appointment of Cyril Ryan as Defense Head for Freeport. . . the only word we can get from Washington on defense from Atomic bombing is that the situation is "well in hand." . . With Cyril Ryan on the job perhaps this bureaucratic excuse will go by the board. . .

NATIONAL

WE CAN SETTLE DOWN to live under near-war conditions beginning this week. E.S.A. (Economic Stabilization Agency) similar to the old O.P.A. and the N.P.A. (National Production Authority) similar to the old W.P.B. sprouted in Washington this week. The President stated in establishing these two agencies: "We must be prepared to maintain a very strong defense program for many years to come" . . . we can expect almost immediate regulations controlling inventory stockpiling, material allocations, and export controls. . .

GLOBAL NEWS

SHALL WE PURSUE THE REDS NORTH OF THE 38th PARALLEL? The debate carries on as to whether or not the U.N. troops should pursue the Reds back over the 38th parallel. . . the key observers seem to think that it would be for the best interests of the U.S. if we could destroy the Reds south of the parallel boundary. . . the recent landings on Korea's west coast close to this line seem to indicate the strategy is to cut across the country and crush the enemy between our forces, hoping thereby to catch all the enemy in this area.

BIG THREE MEET TO STRENGTHEN EUROPE. The most pressing task in Europe is to get the Atlantic Pact out of the planning stage and into the effective stage. . . to get German power into Allied defense. . . The U.S. favors using German power to help Western Europe's defenses. The biggest obstacle seems to be fears that in so doing, we might spark future German aggression. . .

HAS A THIRD WORLD WAR BEGUN? In the attempt to find some acceptable, responsible answer to this question the answer seems to indicate: No . . . but . . . with the "but" ranging all the way from "tomorrow" to "sometime in the future." It may be interesting to note that the betting odds quoted by a well known gambler are 9 to 5 that the Korean war will not develop into a third world war.

RUSSIA AVOIDS CRISIS OVER BOMBER. Another indication that Moscow is not looking for a shooting war right now is the fact that while the incident of our planes shooting down a Russian plane caused a violent Russian protest it did not provoke a "crisis."

AND 154 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK George Washington in his farewell address warned against the U.S. becoming entangled in permanent foreign alliances . . . What a far cry from those days.

Freeport Rotary Gets International Award

W. Halsey Wood, governor for the 25th Rotary International District, presented a certificate to the Freeport Club Thursday night a certificate for having the largest per capita number of subscriptions to the Rotary magazines during the year just closed.

The certificate read: "Award to the Rotary Club of Freeport, New York in recognition of the highest average per capita number of special subscriptions to the Rotarian and Revista Rotaria in District 257 in the Rotary Year 1949-50."

It was signed by Phil Lovejoy, international secretary.

Revista Rotaria is the Spanish and French Rotarian publication, and is mailed to members and prospective members in foreign countries. The local group had 100 per cent subscription to the magazine when the membership was 42. This was accomplished during the administration of Ray Clements.

District Governor Wood gave a talk on the various activities of the International planned for the coming year. President Chester H. Smiley presided.

Ryan, Civil Defense Head

Walter J. Pope, who is associated with the Baldwin & Cornelius Co., Inc., village engineers, is the engineer of the group and will be in charge of public utilities.

The physician selected is Dr. Benjamin Fink, also physician of the Fire Department. He will have jurisdiction over radiological defense, chemicals, special weapons, medicine and health, medical care, administrative affairs, training helpers and evacuation.

Fire Chief Robert N. Kinsey and Police Chief Peter Elar, will be responsible for the control of fires and the maintenance of the peace. The civilian member of the administrative staff is Milton Danziger, who will assist in evacuation of any areas if necessary and civilian war aid.

Each member of this quintet will have his own staff to assist him in his administrative duties.

The next step, Mr. Ryan has planned is to get all the volunteers possible, and the necessary equipment so as to be prepared for any emergency that might occur no matter how remote the possibilities are. He has arranged to issue the appears for these aides through the schools, the radio and the press.

The director has prepared a letter which is to be mimeographed and delivered by the students of all the schools to their parents. Realizing that many residents of Freeport cannot be reached in this manner, appeals for volunteers will be broadcast over Radio Stations WGBB and WHLI. And the third method is through the newspapers.

With a view to co-operating in the movement, The Leader prints the following letter issued by Director Ryan, appealing for volunteers and the use of equipment:

"Dear Neighbor:
Freeport, along with ever community in our county, has been put on notice to be prepared to help ourselves here at home in the event of a disaster arising out of the present world conflict.

Though an attack—atomic or otherwise—is a possibility rather than a probability, its resultant dangers are so great that even though an attack is remote, preparations must be made for such a happening at the earliest possible date.

We are asking for your help and for the help of all the people of our village.

This letter and card are sent to you as a means of securing an inventory of our people and our equipment, so that if there is a "bombing" here or in an adjacent community, each of us would have his place and a job to help, thereby eliminating much confusion and perhaps great loss of life."

A card for parents to fill out is to accompany the letter to be taken by pupils to their homes. As this is impossible in a newspaper, The Leader prints a box on page indicating the types of activities and materials needed, which may be clipped, filled in and mailed or taken personally to Civil Defense Headquarters in the Municipal Building. The replies will be catalogued and the volunteers will be called as Civil Defense plans are developed and the assistants may be assigned tasks they are best qualified to fill.

Volunteers are needed to serve as nurses, first aiders, auxiliary police, wardens, firemen, rescue workers, evacuation workers, assist in keeping communications, clerical workers, and typists.

Centennial Ave. P.T.A. Get-Acquainted Meeting

Mrs. Daniel Senseney, president, presided at a get-together meeting of the Centennial ave. school (Roosevelt) Parent-Teacher Association, Tuesday afternoon in the school. Members of the Board of Education attended.

Daniel Terry, supervising principal of the Roosevelt schools, spoke on the "Child as the Focal Point of all Education Activities." He told of a memorial class for retarded children to be conducted in the Underhill ave. school, Roosevelt, under the direction of Mr. Lombardi. He also said a new system of reading, the Cardman system of phonetic control, had been introduced in the schools with Mrs. Arnold in charge.

Rudolph Schlegel, president, Stanley Rulon, vice-president; Alfred Oldhoff, treasurer, the Rev. A. J. Parnell and Mrs. Dorothy Brand; members of the school board, were greeted with Joseph P. Mooney, the principal.

Mercy League President Names Committee Heads

Committee chairmen were named by Mrs. Frank Murphy, the president, at the Sept. meeting of the Freeport Mercy League held in Mercy Hospital. They are Mrs. Anthony Preziosi, publicity; Mrs. Frank Alcorn, ways and means; Mrs. John Leonard, gift shop; Mrs. Leo Holpin, membership and sewing; Mrs. John Hoertz, Needlework.

Guild and Mrs. Irving J. Regan, Community Council

Plans for a rummage sale to be conducted in a vacant store, 33 South Grove st., Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Oct. 4, 5 and 6, were announced. It also was decided to hold a luncheon, bridge and fashion show at a date to be selected next month.

Refreshments were served by the Sisters. The next meeting will be on Wednesday, Oct. 18.

South Nassau Home Bureau Plans Get-Acquainted Meeting

A get-acquainted meeting of the South Nassau Home Bureau of Roosevelt, is to be held in Memorial Presbyterian Church, Babylon Turnpike, Roosevelt, next Thursday night. Old and new members will be welcome by Mrs. John Pope, the president. Mrs. Guy A. Russell is membership chairman. A series of projects will be started Thursday night, Oct. 5. Regular meetings are held the fourth Thursday night of each month.

Southeastern Area Now Officially in Village

The area east of South Main st., and including West Fourth st., is now officially a part of the incorporated village of Freeport. The application of the property owners to be included within the village limits was approved sometime ago by the Hempstead Town Board and the Village Board but there were certain formalities that had to be taken care of before the change could go into effect. All these have been attended to.

Blazing Star Council Marks 24th Anniversary

Fifty members and guests attended a dinner making the 24th anniversary of Blazing Star Council, Degree of Pochontas, Tuesday night in Sunrise Village, Bellmore.

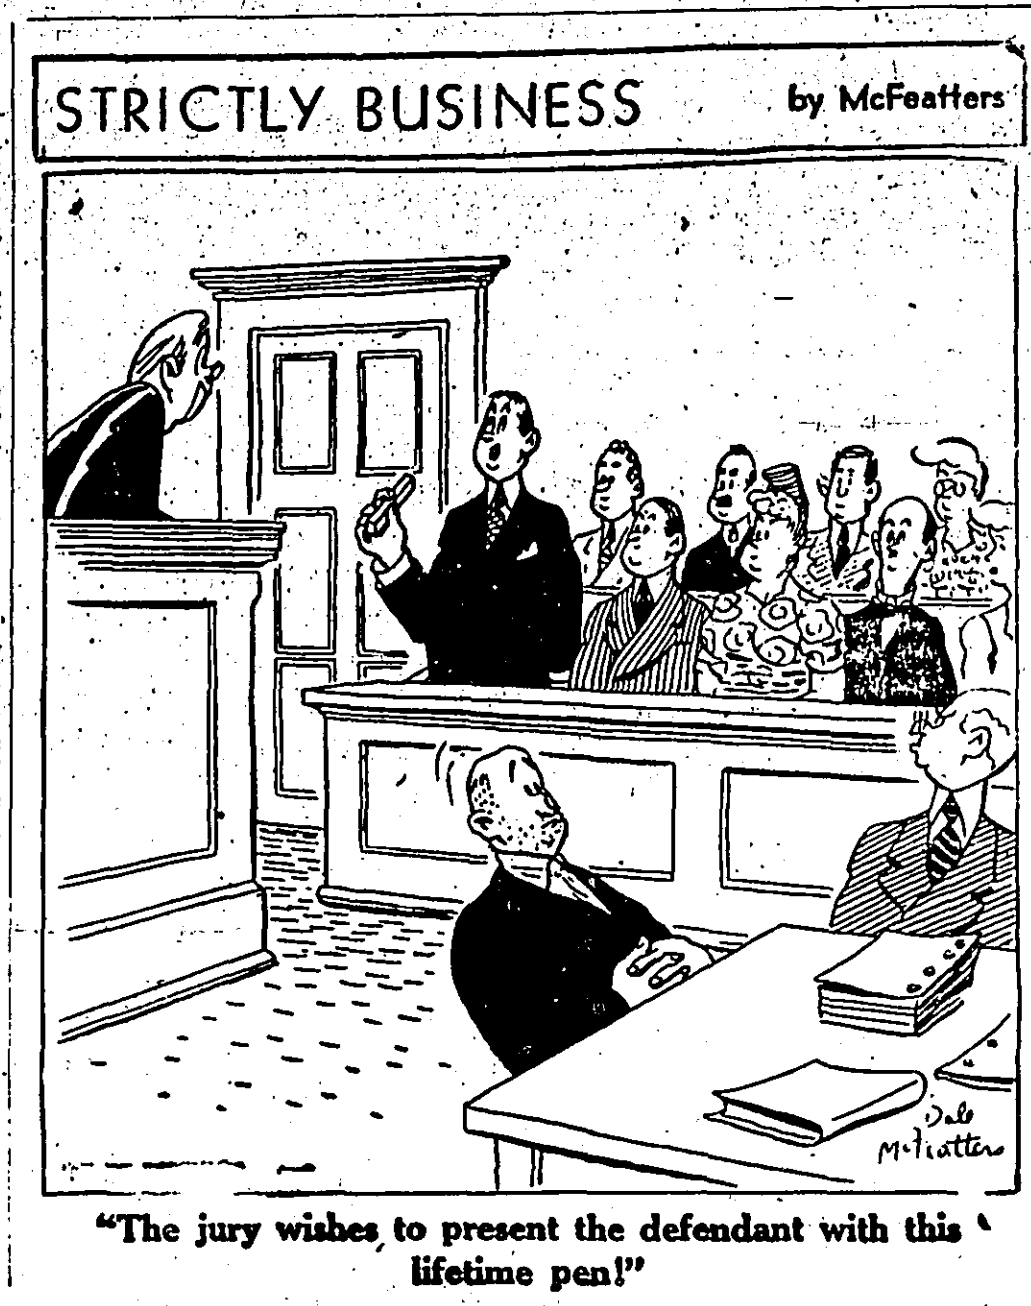

Committee members representing the council attended a meeting of the Nassau County Associated Councils of Tomah Council, Hempstead, to plan for the annual banquet scheduled to be held in the South Shore Yacht Club in November.

Members of the Chorla are Mary Birgenthal, Louise Durnberg, Fay Druben, Edith Flaster, Marie Felsilver, Thelma Helfand, Babe Kinsberg, Florence Nelson, Elsie Swift, Regis Luftig and Jean Uman. Laurette Baumann was the soloist, Dinna Shapiro presided at the piano; Irene Gutman and Helen Perlstein were readers, and Evelyn Harris was in charge of the program.

Kenny Polio Fund Campaign Workers Push Drive As Tribute To Late Leader

Spurred by the death of their chairman, Henry L. Strecker, jr., Freeport workers in the annual fund raising drive of the Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation, Inc., are working with all their power to carry on until Mr. Strecker's successor is named.

The campaign is supposed to end by the first of October, but probably will have to be extended because of the fatality.

Sister Kenny had an interesting career. She was born in Australia and trained as a nurse. While working in this capacity in the bush country, she evolved a new and revolutionary concept of the nature and treatment of poliomyelitis when she was thrown on her own resources on the outbreak of the malady in her territory.

Rebuffed by medical men at first, she lived to see her concept and treatment widely accepted by the medical profession. The great Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation, which operates Kenny Institutes throughout the United States, is a monument to her unceasing fight to conquer polio.

On her arrival in New York, Sister Kenny called on Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation of Infantile Paralysis, one of those to whom her letters of introduction were addressed. O'Connor was not impressed with her theory nor with the glowing recommendations of the Australian medical men, and advised her to return to Australia.

With a heavy heart, she next visited Dr. Melvin Henderson, orthopedic surgeon at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota, to whom she also had letters of introduction. Here her reception was vastly different from what it had been at the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Dr. Henderson arranged for Sister Kenny to demonstrate her treatment of polio to leading physicians of Minneapolis and St. Paul, and later the Minneapolis Public Welfare Board financed a demonstration of the Kenny method at the Minneapolis General Hospital.

Professors of orthopedic surgery and physical medicine, after the demonstration, declared Sister Kenny had presented an entirely new concept of infantile paralysis and a satisfactory treatment for the condition, and soon the city of Minneapolis provided a ward for administering the Kenny treatment in the Minneapolis General Hospital.

From this beginning grew the Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation, Inc., which has brought relief to thousands of polio sufferers.

At the effectiveness of the Kenny treatment became more generally known to medical men and more and more patients were referred to the Institute, the Foundation expanded and new Institutes were established.

The pressure of administrative work eventually became so great that Sister Kenny withdrew as director of the Foundation, although remaining as a member of the board of directors, and devoted all her time to acting as consultant and teacher of technicians. Active director of the Foundation was assumed by Dr. E. J. Huonkens.

Sister Kenny was the first woman recipient of the Gold Key of Physicians.

John W. Raber, 412 Pennsylvania ave., has been elected secretary of Green Point Savings Bank of Brooklyn. He was named a trustee at a recent meeting of the Board of Trustees and then chosen for the secretaryship to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Frank S. Harlow, who had served in that capacity for 32 years. Mr. Raber has been associated with the bank since January 1928.

He was born in Brooklyn, Sept. 2, 1811, and attended Public School 122, Brooklyn; Alexander Hamilton High School, Brooklyn, the New York Chapter of the American Institute of Banking and the Pace Institute of Accounting and Finance in Manhattan, winning high honors in each of these institutions.

He entered the employ of the Green Point Savings Bank as a stenographer and clerk, was appointed auditor in October 1942, assistant to the president on June 12, 1945 and acting secretary on Sept. 1. He is active in numerous organizations as vice-president of the Brooklyn Tuberculosis and Health Association, a member of the Board of Managers of the Greenpoint M.C.C., a director of the Green Point Chamber of Commerce, a director of the Kings Daughters Day Nursery Association and secretary of the Commerce Club of Brooklyn.

The Bethlehem Lutheran Church of North Baldwin is sponsoring a series of films and lectures by leading workers in the field of child welfare. The Rev. William E. Baker, Bethlehem's pastor, recognizing the need of a working, practical guide to the solutions of current, complex child problems, has invited all interested parents to participate in the series of lectures and discussions. He says the opportunity to attend the Clinic should be a special interest since it is the only one of its kind in Nassau County and offers a diversified program of child training.

The Clinic will be held on six consecutive Tuesday evenings; the second meeting to be held next week. The general topic for that evening will be "Why Can't You Do It?" A film, "Feeling of Rejection," which was developed by psychiatrists by the Canadian Department of National Health and Welfare, will be followed by a discussion period.

All parents from surrounding communities are welcome. A small registration fee will be charged to help defray the cost of materials supplied.

Capt. C. A. Peterson U. S. C. G. Area Head

Capt. Clarence H. Peterson, 18 Lorenz ave., Baldwin, was recently named Deputy Area Commander by Rear Admiral Louis B. Olson, Commander of the Eastern Area and Third District of the U. S. Coast Guard. The Petersons have a son, Karl, who was graduated as honor man of the Coast Guard Academy class of 1949, and a daughter, Ruth Ann, 15, a student in the Baldwin High School.

Formerly the Third District Chief of Operations, Capt. Peterson relieved Capt. Walter R. Richards, who will become Chief of Staff in the First (Boston) Coast Guard District. In the Area post he will assist Admiral Olson in the administration and control of all Coast Guard activities in waters off the East and Gulf coasts of the United States.

Capt. Peterson is a native of Frankfort, Mich. On graduation from the U. S. Coast Guard Academy, New London, Conn., in 1924, he was assigned as a line officer aboard the Cutter MODOC and later transferred to the cutter USSA-1, the Coast Guard destroyer MCCAIG and SHAW. In 1929 he returned to the Academy where he taught mathematics to the cadets until 1932.

From 1939 to 1943, he served as Assistant Chief, Communications Division, at Coast Guard Headquarters, Washington, D.C., and from this post was sent to sea as commander of a group of 12 LST's operating with amphibious forces in the South Pacific. Participating in the initial invasion of Cape Gloucester, New Britain, this force distinguished itself under heavy bombing by inflicting major damage on the enemy while itself sustaining few losses. In successive actions Capt. Peterson's command delivered thousands of troops and countless tons of vital war equipment. Its aggregate successes were recognized by the Navy with its award to him of the Silver Star.

Capt. Peterson's command efficiency was again demonstrated and recognized at Iwo Jima and Okinawa where he commanded LST Flotilla 29 and won the combat Bronze Star.

Capt. Peterson returned to the continental United States in September, 1945. His first assignment was as Chief, Aids to Navigation Division, at Coast Guard Headquarters. In this post he was directly responsible for the installation and maintenance of more than 38,000 navigational aids, including lighthouses, lightships, buoys, beacons and Loran stations situated from Greenland to the Philippines. In March of this year he came to the 3rd District as Chief of District Operations.

Baldwin Kiwanians To Fete 500 Children

Picnic Sunday Afternoon To Mark National Kids' Day—Events Planned

For the 500 children who will be the special guests of the Kiwanis Club of Baldwin, as well as many other youngsters who are expected to attend, there will be games, athletic and novelty competitions, hot dogs, ice-cream and pop at the annual picnic at Gardiner Field, Baldwin, Sunday afternoon.

The big day, held in observance of Kiwanis International's National Kids' Day, with William Behrens, Boys and Girls Work chairman, directing the general program, usually been planned to entertain only the 350 boys who participate in the Baldwin Kiwanis baseball program. This year's guest list, however, has been extended to include some 200 other deserving boys and girls.

Prizes will be awarded in the competitive events directed by Fred Trautwein, Harry Mitchell, Charles Leimster and George Parrish, who also take charge of the summer baseball activities. Refreshment dispensers will be Leon Joseph, Walter Rodgers, Vincent Marling, Harry Brumberg, Ernest Petry, Ross Eyerly, Rudy Marx and a staff of assistant chiefs comprised of some of Baldwin's leading business and professional men.

There will be games and refreshments for every child attending. The specially invited youngsters will wear National Kids' Day lapel buttons for identification. The picnic is only a part of the varied Baldwin youth program made possible by the Kiwanis, the Boosters' Club and the contributing non-Kiwanians.

Carlino Address Opens Campaign of Republican Club

Lauds State Ticket,
And Calls on All To Register and Vote

Assemblyman Joseph F. Carlino, running for reelection, opened the 1950 campaign at the monthly meeting of the Freeport Republican Club Thursday night in the Legion Dugout. He was introduced by Sheriff H. Alfred Volmer, who announced that registration days would be Oct. 6, 7, 13 and 14, and appealed for everyone to qualify to vote by enrolling on one of these days.

Playing on the name of Walter Lynch, Democratic candidate for Governor, the Sheriff declared "we don't want any one to Lynch" dewey this time."

Assemblyman Carlino told of the enthusiasm that prevailed at the Republican State Convention held in Saratoga, and pointed out that all that of the candidates of the party are men well known, experienced and have proven their worth. On the other hand, he asserted, only one of the Democratic candidates is known, while there are five men "I don't believe the voters ever heard of. They are strangers to me."

Call On All to Vote
He predicted the re-election of Gov. Dewey if the eligible, intellectual, qualified voters turn out at the polls in November. He pointed out that millions of citizens fail to register and vote annually in the United States. In these trying days people cannot pay home on Election Day, he said, no appeal for all present to get their neighbors to register and vote this year.

After briefly reviewing Dewey's accomplishments as Governor since 1943, Assemblyman Carlino pointed out that New York State has 10 percent of the Nation's population, 20 percent of the wealth, with New York City as the financial center, said this state had a tremendous interest in the coming national election and proceeded to assail the administration in Washington.

He referred to the secret pacts made at Yalta, Potsdam and other international conferences attended by the late President Roosevelt, which he said "continued popping up to plague and shock the nation." He charged Stalin was given carte blanche to swallow up one country after another in eastern Europe, and condemned the division of Korea, between Soviet Russia and the Southern Koreans. He also referred to the vastations of President Truman, his miffing of Gen. Douglas MacArthur and his characterization of the U. S. Marines as the police of the Navy, in calling for the election of a Republican Congress in November.

Campaign Contribution
Ernest H. Behrens, treasurer for Freeport, appealed for all Republicans to contribute, no matter how little, to the campaign fund for the coming election.

Mrs. Edythe L. Sheehan, membership chairman, reported a paid-up membership of 304 and the following were received as members: Mr. and Mrs. Donald Reid, Lydia Wilson, Joseph A. Ruhoy, William Muholland, Mrs. Elsie Ellsworth and Milton Golden.

Treasurer M. Gordon Simson reported the club had a balance of $2,220.29, including $1,138.26 realized by disposing of a television receiving set at the annual outing in August.

Hostesses during the social hour were Mrs. Ottilie Hager, chairman; Mrs. Nellie Kegan, Mrs. Elfrida Perry, Mrs. Frances Lyons, Mrs. Josephine San Rocco and Mrs. Ralph L. Marshall, President Marshall presided.

L. I. R. R. NOW OPERATING ON WINTER TIMETABLE

A general change in time-tables was made on the Long Island Rail Road Sunday, when the railroad's Winter schedules went into effect. Summer seasonal trains have been withdrawn, and adjustments made in the schedules of some year-round trains. For details, passengers are advised to consult their local ticket agents, who will have a supply of the new Winter time-tables.

Regional Plan Ass'n. Plan Conference Oct. 10

The Regional Plan Association has issued a call for the 550 municipalities of the New Jersey-New York-Connecticut metropolitan region for the Fifth Regional Plan Conference to be held Tuesday, Oct. 10, at the Hotel Roosevelt, F. J. Osborn, British industrialist and authority on town and country planning, will be the chief speaker at the luncheon session.

Luther Gulick, executive director of the Mayor's Committee on Management Survey of the City of New York and president of the Institute of Public Administration, Dr. C. E. A. Winslow, chairman of the Committee on the Hygiene of Housing, American Public Health Association, and David R. Levin, chief, Land Studies Section, Bureau of Public Roads, Washington, D.C., will be among the speakers.

CHARMICHAEL GETS STATE K. OF C. PUBLICITY POST

Daniel J. Charnichael, a member of Bishop Molloy Council, K. of C., has been named vice-chairman of plan and scope and public relations, by State Deputy Matthew Kennedy of Brooklyn. He will assist in handling the publicity for the 271 councils with a membership of 86,000 in the state. Mr. Charnichael has been a member of the order for 38 years. He has just returned from a ten-day vacation spent in the South.

PRE-SCHOOL GROUP TO HEAR DENTAL HYGIENIST TONIGHT

"What lies behind your child's smile?" Mrs. Harry Duff, dental hygienist, will answer that question with a film and lecture to the Atkinson Pre-School group at the first meeting of the year, tonight, at 8:15 in the Visual Education room of the school.

Catholics to Enroll Released Time Pupils

Registration for released time religious training for elementary and high school students will take place in Our Holy Redeemer School Saturday from 9 A.M. to noon. The Rev. John P. Drab appealed for a large registration at two masses in the church Sunday. He said from 375 to 400 boys and girls eligible to attend these classes are attending the schools in Freeport, and urged especially the enrollment of children of junior-senior high school ages. He said there was an apparent lack of interest on the part of this group, which he asserted constituted those who should be vitally concerned about receiving religious instruction.

Classes will be conducted Mondays after 2:30 P.M., for high school students, and Thursdays at the same hour for pupils in the first through the sixth grades. Buses are to be provided to transport children in the first to third grades from the various schools to the classes. Children who enroll for these classes are released from the public schools to attend. Father Drab asked for volunteers to assist the priests and sisters in conducting the classes.

National Dog Week Starts Next Monday

National Dog Week is to be observed starting on Sunday and continuing through Saturday night. In observance of the week, there will be a meeting of the Long Island Humane and Dog Protective Association, Inc., at the home of the president, James H. Orluk-shank, 170 South Ocean ave., Monday night. It will be followed by an address by Raymond J. Hanfield, president of the National Dog Week and head of the Hudson County S. P. C. A., on "Animal Problems."

This is one of the topics of Dog Week.

Legion Completes Benefit Show Plans

'In Love With Love'
To Be Given Twice
In Seaman Auditorium

Plans for the benefit performance of "In Love With Love" to be given by the Merrick Players on Friday and Saturday next week to aid the welfare fund were completed at the monthly meeting of William Clinton Story Post, A. L., Friday night in the Dugout. The performance is to be presented in the auditorium of the Seaman ave. school. Commander Oscar J. Pultz appealed for the Legionnaires to do all in their power to dispose of as many tickets as possible for the event.

Announcement was made that a Nassau County membership kick-out rally would be held in the Dugout on Friday night Sept. 29, with State Commander John Hawn, of Buffalo, as the principal speaker. C. Howard Larsen, county commander, said he hoped for a membership of 10,000 and Charles F. Monticasse, local membership officer, fixed 1,000 as the Story Post goal, nearly double that reached during the year just closed when group lost first place in the county standing.

It was decided to again hold the annual Armistice Day rites in the Municipal Building on Saturday morning, Nov. 11; followed by the usual ball at night in Dugout.

Wayne Marshall, who represented Story Post in the Boys' State at Colgate University from June 25 to July 2, gave a report on the event.

Republican Women's Luncheon on Thursday

The Women's Committee of the Freeport Republican Club will hold its annual luncheon at the South Shore Yacht Club next Thursday at 12:30 P.M. There will be a fashion show in connection with the event. Last year when the affair was conducted at Guy Lombardo's East Point House, more than 150, who desired to attend and had failed to make reservations, had to be turned away.

Mrs. Benjamin J. Reiner, the chairman, is being assisted by Mrs. Harold W. Baitin, Mrs. Catherine Sonneck, Mrs. William Kell and Mrs. Blanche Russell. Reservations close today (Thursday) with Mrs. Sonneck, 36 North Bayview avenue.

Enrollment Thursday For Great Books Group

The Great Books Discussion group to be conducted in the Freeport Memorial Library will take place next Thursday night in the library.

Groups are being sponsored by the Freeport, Rockville Centre and Hempstead Libraries. First year groups will meet Thursday nights, October 5 and 19.

Homer's "Odyssey" will be the book under discussion at the first meeting of the Second year group Tuesday night Oct. 10 in the Freeport Memorial Library. Sessions last two hours.

Eighteen books listed by the University of Chicago are read and discussed by the group in each semester. The group is to continue from year to year as long as interest remains.

3 Police Boats Patrol South Shore

Enforcing Waterway
Rules, Mayor Informs
Baptist Men's Club

Mayor Robert L. Doxsee revealed in a talk to the Men's Club of the First Baptist Church in Welton Hall Friday night that three Nassau County police boats are operating in the waters along the south shore of Nassau County enforcing the rules against speeding by motor boats and operating with mufflers opened.

He recalled that civic associations had protested against these practices by boatmen and told how he appealed to the county authorities who promised to put the boats in operation. Now, the Mayor added, the meeting.

Christian Science

"Reality" is the lesson-sermon subject for Sunday at 11 a. m. in the First Church of Christ, Scientist, West Merrick rd., at Elm pl.

The golden text is: "Lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the Lord" (Zechariah 2:10).

And it came to pass in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, that Moses spake unto the children of Israel, according unto all that the Lord had given him in commandment unto them: Behold, I have set the land before you; go and possess the land which the Lord swore unto your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give unto them and to their seed after them. Behold, I have taught you statutes and judgments, even as the Lord my God commanded me, that ye should do so in the land whither ye go to possess it. Keep therefore and do them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes, and say, surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people."

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "The starting-point of divine Science is that God, Spirit, is All-in-all; that all things are of one mind; that God is Love, and therefore He is divine Principle. . . . Man understands spiritual existence in proportion as his treasure of Truth and Love are enlarged" (pages 275, 285).

they have just been received from the boat builders and placed in use. He announced his intention of calling a meeting of the waterfront commission with a view to having it suggest regulations to govern the county police in controlling boats operating in the waterways.

The Mayor discussed the activities of the various village departments, especially those which do not figure often in the news. He referred specially to the Park Commission; the Zoning Board of Appeals and the Planning Board and Sewer Commission. He also considered the utilities, especially the Power and Water Departments, telling how these bureaus provide free service that other villages pay for in their annual budgets. He also referred to the Highway Department and the various offices in the Municipal Building.

Refreshments were served after the meeting.

A Tradition of Meeting Emergencies

The Telephone Company is in the midst of a big expansion job now.
Although there is more to be done, we face the future with confidence.

It's a tradition in the telephone business to be prepared for emergencies.

Today, thanks to almost a decade of building, expanding and improving, the New York Telephone Company is in good shape to fulfill this tradition.

We are organized to meet emergencies fast and well. In case a fire, flood or hurricane disrupts service, we send crews of highly trained craftsmen immediately to the disaster zone—and even before they get there, materials are on their way to the scene from well-placed supply houses. If the need is great, we can call on other Bell companies for help, because equipment and operating practices are standard.

These advantages have enabled us to meet the challenges of two World Wars and of many natural emergencies—and we count on them with assurance in the future.

A Big Job Done

During and since the war we have been faced with tremendous new demands for service. It is fortunate, in these days of concern over international affairs, that the company has been able to undertake a vast program of improvement and expansion.

For this work has provided New York State with a telephone plant which is even better and far larger than that of 1941.

The facts are:
Our $245,000,000 construction program has resulted in a 60 per cent increase in plant and facilities.
We are serving 75 per cent more telephones.
We are handling 75 per cent more calls.
Our force of 71,000 employees is 80 per cent bigger than it was in 1941.

A Big Job Still Ahead

This has been a big job, and it is not yet done. There still are individual demands for service that, unfortunately, we haven't been able to meet. And more circuits are needed on many long distance routes. But we are building new telephone plant at the rate of half a million dollars every working day, and we expect to continue this high rate of construction just as long as materials are available and our financial resources permit.

Times like these emphasize the importance of this work, and the value of a telephone company that is financially healthy and strong enough to do the job.

We are working closely today with civilian defense organizations, state and local, and with the Air Defense and Aircraft Warning Systems. Key telephone officials of long experience are helping to develop plans for swift, sure, emergency communications. We are laying plans now to provide additional facilities for military camps and defense industries wherever needed.

Our Greatest Asset

Telephone facilities, like any other physical thing, can of course be damaged or disrupted—but we have the organization, the experience, the mobility of men and tools to make repairs promptly. This is important to cope with the immediate effects of a single disaster or to meet the continuing demands of a national emergency.

The greatest asset of all in meeting any emergency is the thousands of loyal telephone men and women, skilled in the art of communications. They are devoted to their calling and to the people they serve.

We think that the telephone users of New York State should know these facts, for the facts are reassuring.

Rabbi and Mrs. Katz Maintain Open House

Hosts to Members of Temple B'nai Israel In Their New Home

Rabbi and Mrs. Reuben M. Katz, of 224 Grand ave. held open house Sunday for the members and friends of Congregation B'nai Israel. It is the custom of Rabbi Katz and his wife to personally extend greetings to their congregation and friends on the advent of the Jewish New Year.

Early this year, the congregation built the private dwelling for the exclusive use of the rabbi and his family. Inasmuch as prior to this time, some people had not had an opportunity to call on their spiritual leader, it was in celebration of both of these occasions that this date was chosen.

It is estimated that 500 persons were greeted by Rabbi and Mrs. Katz who expressed extreme pleasure in being able to accomplish a long cherished desire as this very appropriate time.

Also on the receiving line were Mrs. J. M. Zor, president of the Sisterhood, and David Montfiori, president of the congregation.

'Americana' Receipts Form Nucleus Of Strecker Memorial Polio Fund

Two hundred dollars as netted as the nucleus of the Henry A. Strecker Memorial Fund to be used to finance the treatment of Freeport victims of infantile paralysis at the Sister Kenny Foundation Institute in the Jersey City Medical Center by the presentation of "Americana," a Children's Theatre Production, in the auditorium of the Columbus ave. school, Friday night, Mr. Strecker, a widely known consulting civil engineer, suffered torn ligaments of an ankle, while doing some work in connection with plans for providing parking fields in connection with the grade elimination at Rockville Centre. Though his leg was placed in a plaster cast, he refused to give up work, and his death of pneumonia was attributed largely to the resulting physical strain before he was seized with the disease. He had been named chairman of the Sister Kenny polio fund drive in Freeport.

The show, which was an artistic success, was staged by pupils of the Freeport Children's Theatre Project, under the direction of Mildred Miller and Wynetta Fisher, with Frederick D. Wood as vocal director. The program was divided into seven parts, the first entitled "Reading, Riting and Rithmetick," with Pamela Rockwell as mistress of ceremonies. It started with "Enjoy Yourself!" by the ensemble, and included a ship rope solo, "I Don't Want to Play in Your Back Yard," "Raggy Ann and Andy," "Sunbonnet and Overalls," "Went You Come Over to My House?" "Toyland," and "The French Doll's Surprise." "Jones Beach was the title of the second, and the numbers were "By the Sea," "Small Fry," "Back Bend," a pole balance, a slow ballet, an acrobatic solo, "Cotton Candy and a Tidy Balcon," "Sun Worshippers," "Beach Adagio," and "On the Ball." "The Old South," with "Crimoline Days," selections by a Dixieland sextet, a "Peach Blossom Ballet," and a "Georgia Peach." Fourth was "South of the Border," with "Loves from 1924," "Fiv'ing "Ranchito Grande," "La Paloma," "Rhapsody," and "From Old Madrid." "Wild Wild West," followed with a "Single Saddle," "Pass, that Peace Pipe," a yodeling cowl, "O, My Darling Clementine," and a melodrama, "The Old Homestead," written by Jane Knox Fenyo.

The sixth was "American Beauties" with "Loves from 1924," "Florida Girls," and impersonation of the Andrews Sisters, "Sally Irene and Mary," "Vagabond Shoes," "When You and I Were Seventeen," a flapper, jitterbugs and the Rock of us. Finally there was "The Stars and Stripes Forever," including a medley from George M. Cohan's "Yankee Doodle Dandy," a military tap, "Anchors Aweigh," "Yankee Doodle Dandy," "It's a Grand Old Flag," a stop rhythm, "Wooden Soldiers," some twirling and Miss Liberty as the finale.

Pupils who participated in the performance were: Ann and Judy Calhoun, Jean Ciravino, Barbara and Karen Douschner, Katherine Spasolito, Jane Katharine, Marc and Roger Fanzo, Beth and Paul Fries, Christine Fieber, Rita Flanagan, Sally Herbert, Virginia Hall, Dilella Hines, Toby Ann Hyman, Marilyn Jackson, Jean Konrad, Frederick and Bud Koster, Patricia and Jill Lewis, Vickie Lee, Peggy Ann Morrow, Elaine Morimoto, Gail and Shannan, Carol and Bobbie MacDonald, Carolyn and Carol Ann Pello, Raymond Phillips, John Rockwell, Diane and Shannan Study, Elizabeth Smith, Mary Shear, Martha Shaver, Gail Soli and Nancy Vernon.

The guests of the evening were: Mrs. Steinheuser as caller. Past royal matrons were hostesses with Mrs. Shelly as chairman.

Van Wyck Baylises Home from Honeymoon

Mr. and Mrs. VanWyck Bayliss, Jr., have returned from their honeymoon trip to Vermont, and are at home at the Bayliss home, 2330 Smith Lane, Seaford. Mr. Bayliss and Miss Jean M. St. Louis, daughter of Mrs. Cleveland A. Morris, 30 Franklin ave., were married in Our Holy Redeemer R.C. Church on Sunday, Sept. 10, by the Rev. John P. Drab. The bride was given in marriage by her stepfather, Mrs. Lorraine Morris was maid of honor, and the Misses Marion and Anna May Jensen bridesmaids. The best man was Angelo Palmeri, while Wayne Bratchie and Harold Morris, brother of the bride, served as ring bearers.

Vincent Belland, sang several selections including "Ave Maria," accompanied on the organ by Walter Blaloe. A reception for 150 relatives and friends was given in the Seaford Fire Hall. After spending several days in New York the couple went to Montpelier, Vt., where they remained until they returned to Long Island on Monday.

Mrs. Bayliss a graduate of Freeport High School, is secretary for Simon Baumann, Inc. Her husband also is a Freeport High School graduate, is a member of the staff of the King Kullen store in Rockville Centre. Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle Coates, sr., and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Roy of Proctor, Vt., witnessed the wedding.

Highway Workers Give Frank B. Stevens Send-off

The Highway Department staff, headed by Superintendent Harry J. Chusano, gave a send-off for Frank B. Stevens, who has been called into service at a party given in the Municipal Garage Saturday afternoon. He is to report at Camp Breckenridge, Ky., in a few days, to join an airborne contingent. He has been assistant chief mechanic in the garage.

Mrs. Stevens and Miss Antoinette (Dolly) Primavera, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Primavera, 43 Haines ave., were married in Our Holy Redeemer Church by the Rev. John P. Drab on Saturday, Sept. 2. They had planned to live at 314 South-Ocean ave., but a few days later he received his call to report for service.

Interesting Feature of Early History Of So. Nassau Communities Hospital

Very early in the morning, Nov. 12, 1928, the South Nassau Communities Hospital stood shining new and silent. The day before had been one of excitement. There had been speeches, congratulations. Crowds had thronged the corridors, peered at the gleaming operating rooms and X-ray equipment. For on that day the people of the South Shore had seen the fulfillment of a long-cherished dream. They had a hospital of their own.

Now the excitement was over. Miss Mary Pearson, the superintendent, and her staff of six trained nurses and one attendant were ready for the business of running a hospital.

Nor did they have long to wait. At 7:15 A.M. that Nov. 12th, Miss Gladys Hill was carried into the hospital. Dr. William E. Wheelock had ordered the operating room equipped. Mrs. Wasson and Mrs. Rieter, surgical nurses, swung into action. Robert Young, operating room attendant, checked the equipment. Dr. J. Lee administered the anesthetic. Swiftly and surely Dr. Wheelock performed an appendectomy. The operation completed, Miss Hill was wheeled into Room 213. South Nassau Communities Hospital was "in business."

Three more patients were admitted the same day—one the first of many accident cases. But the hospital had to wait 25 hours—until 8:15 A.M., Nov. 13—for its first baby—Julia Patricia Bentley. Twenty-one years later—Nov. 12, 1949—South Nassau Communities Hospital stood, not so shining new, certainly not silent. Instead of thirty, there were crowded into its rooms, wards, solaris and even halls, 115 beds, although its capacity was only 98 beds. Miss Mary Pearson was still on hand, directing activity, there were new additions to its staff—Comptroller now. So were Mrs. Lohr, Mrs. Demott, Mrs. Rieter and Robert Young.

And at 3:28 A.M. on its "coming of age day," Mrs. Lucille Schnabel was the first patient admitted. First patient on the twenty-first birthday, but the 80,100th patient in the history of South Nassau. At 8:15 A.M., just twenty-four hours less than twenty-one years after Julia Bentley's lusty cries marked the arrival of the hospital's 23,366th child.

South Nassau Communities Hospital took a deep breath. Its staff paused momentarily to eat ice cream and cake in celebration of the big day, and went back to work. This is the story of a hospital, and how it grew.

Hospital Facilities Lacking
In the early 1920's, there was no hospital serving the South Shore. The county was growing rapidly and the need for hospital facilities was acute.

In Rockville Centre, George D. A. Combes, merchant, banker and member of one of the county's leading families, knew the seriousness of the situation. The area's only hospital beds were in the Rockville Centre Sanitarium. This institution had been established by Dr. Hartley E. Boorum. When he retired, it was taken over by Mr. Combes as a public service. Under her able leadership, the Sanitarium was excellently run. Its space, however, was limited, and its construction made it impossible to operate at maximum efficiency.

Village Board Regrets Resignation Of Fishel as Sewer Commission Head

A resolution of regret over the resignation, due to illness, of Leo Fishel, chairman of the Freeport Sewer Commission for many years, was approved at a meeting of the Village Board Monday night.

They recalled that Mr. Fishel had served the village for a period of 25 years, "has devoted himself wholeheartedly to the cause of the public welfare and has given freely of his time and talents to the people of the village." They also called attention to his "services as counsel to the board and as chairman of the Sewer Commission have played an important part in the development of his home community."

Through all the years of his service it was asserted he "established a reputation for rugged integrity and high sense of public responsibility," and "now at the apex of his career he is impelled to withdraw from public service because of illness." The preamble continued, "This decision," it was added, "may well leave the village without the services of a man whom it has long depended on."

The resolution expressing appreciation of his "unselfish service," and was ordered adopted, engrossed and presented to Mr. Fishel and serves as a permanent record of the board.

G. J. Smith on Appeals Board
George J. Smith, of the Columbian Bronze Corp., was named a member of the Zoning Board of Appeals to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Theodore M. Seven Acres Plat Acquired.

President of the Board of Directors was Mr. Combes; Secretary, Harrison B. Wright; and Treasurer, a position he has held continuously since, Jacob Lampert. The first task of the Board was to make the hospital a reality as quickly as possible. Early in 1927, a seven-acre plot was purchased on Oceanide Road in Oceanide. Actual construction began in Nov. 1927. Architects' plans called for a 50-bed institution, in the best tradition of the day in hospital construction.

In Jan. of 1928, the first annual meeting of the Board of Directors was held. Mr. Combes was re-elected President, and Messrs. Wright and Lampert, secretary and treasurer, respectively. Building progressed rapidly. On May 7, 1928, with appropriate ceremonies, the cornerstone was laid. And on Nov. 11, the hospital was opened for inspection by the public. The following day, it embarked upon its long period of service to the South Shore Communities.

Superintendent of Buildings W. P. DeMott in his report for August showed 30 permits issued for new buildings estimated to cost $415,805 and 16 for additions and alterations involving $24,720 for a total of $502,615.

Recommendations were received from Police Chief Peter Elar on a communication from the Northeast Civic Association suggesting night parking on Broadway be banned, and the one-hour parking limit be enforced during the day. This was proposed that parking be restricted on the north side of the street, from Main st., to North Columbus ave., and that parking meters be

Baldwin Girl Scout Drive Due to End on October 2

The annual Girl Scout fund drive, with Gordon M. Walker, 10 Emerson Av., Baldwin, finance chairman, was launched recently. The campaign will close Monday.

Canyassers have been appointed from the various troops to solicit contributions, rummage and cake sales are being held, the next cake sale to be at Stop 'N Shop Super Market, Merrick Road, Baldwin, Saturday, Sept. 30.

A military bridge, scheduled for tomorrow night at First Presbyterian Church, St. Lukes place, Baldwin, is under the chairmanship of Mrs. James Parks and Mrs. Dawson Molyneux.

Mrs. E. J. Mc Nabb and Mrs. Robert Curry are co-chairmen for a square dance planned for Saturday night, September 30, at the Plaza School. A well-known band will furnish music for the dance. Mrs. Woodward, Baldwin 3-4306-J, is in charge of tickets for both the bridge and the square dance.

Ellison "carried out his duties in a most co-operative and expeditious manner and should be commended," and paid a similar tribute to Dr. B. R. Markowitz.

It was voted to change from Residence "A" to Business "B," the Zoning of a section of Stevens st., at North Main, when no opposition developed at a hearing on the 11 added that Patrolman Edwin G. proposal.

It's A Full Time Job

Some sixty million strong, we breadearners will take our usual week-end off in a day or so, as we do every week... enjoying our rights as free American workers to a week-end of leisure... a week-end to do pretty much as we please.

But rights beget duties... our continued safety as free workers depends on our willingness to put in 365 days a year at being good citizens. That a whole time job... our freedom, our security, our very lives depend on it.

Probably most of us think we are already pretty good citizens... but let's take a look at the record.

The right to vote is fundamental to freedom. Yet in the last presidential election forty-three million did not take the trouble to go to the polls. Almost half of us did not value freedom enough to walk a block or two and fast our balls.

Let's look ourselves over once more... It took thousands of years, and lots of wars to set us our right to trial by jury. Yet, too many regard dodging jury duty as a very smart thing to do. And often those same jury dodgers yelp their heads off when they think some injustice has been done in our courts.

Then there are folks who cannot find time to attend T. A. meetings.

Others who think their sole duty as Union members is to pay dues... let someone else attend the meetings.

There are stockholders who draw dividends, but don't vote.

Let's remember this... We'll hold on to our rights to enjoy our week-ends as we choose only as long as we hold on to freedom.

And that's a full time job... it takes 150 million good American citizens working 365 days a week to do it.

The Editor's Notebook

We got a big kick out of the name of the newest Buick automobile... it is Glavaybrokrook... By the time you're at to pronounce it... it's last year's model.

The hearts and hopes of Republicans in Congress as been greatly uplifted by the decision of Tom Dewey to run once more for governorship of N.Y. The view of the Republicans is that his re-election, which they expect, will implant him even more firmly in the national picture as a major factor... Walt and see young F. D. follow behind Dewey as he tours the state... Dewey is certain to me out fighting, and young F. D. R. will be in there trying to laugh off the telling blows.

If the U. S. accepts a formula that enables the communists to take the China seat on the Security Council such action in our opinion could very well be called the "Far Eastern Munich"... We've ever learn that you can't do business with Stalin?... Several thousand American lives lost in Korea should be evidence enough.

Ray Clements

THE HOME CIRCLE

GIVING ONESELF

One of the great heroes of baseball was Ray Chapman... He was killed in a baseball game several years ago at the very climax of a pennant race. At bat, with Carl Mayasch pitching, Ray ducked his head just a little late, and a fast-moving ball hit him on the temple. He never played again.

He would be remembered in baseball history only because he died thus. But baseball fans will remember him with true admiration because he was one of the greatest, sacrificial hitters in the history of baseball. For four years he led his league in the percentage of sacrifice hits. Ray Chapman put his team first, and himself second.

Life is something like a baseball game. Those who are the sacrifice hitters make a vital contribution to the winning of the ball game. The servant among us is the greatest... is the age-long message of inspired religion, from the days of Jesus to today.

Joseph Lee, founder of the playground and recreation movement in America, gave witness to this truth. He was a very wealthy man. He fostered this movement and to keep boys' girls healthy, he gave to it his large fortune. He believed in the agency of the servant.

And whosoever of you will be the chief, shall be servant of all.

Red Cross Teaching U. N. Group First Aid

United Nations couriers, men of many countries whose jobs take them to the outposts of the world, are being trained in first aid by the Nassau Red Cross Chapter. Even the "Big Move" of the UN from the Sperry Plant at Lake Success to the UN building in New York City did not halt the class. Graduate from classes conducted by C. Maury DeGhuse, assistant director of safety services of the chapter, have already been reported from India, Greece, the Far East and distant spots where civilization is stretched thin. Five nationalities are among the students. DeGhuse is training now in a class that started at Lake Success and is winding up in the Manhattan U.N. Building.

This week marked the start of one of the most tremendous G. O. drives ever seen in Freeport High. This year the General Organization under the direction of W. CHAPIN MOORE, faculty advisor, and president BERT SWEZEY, plans to sell 1200 TICKETS. So let's all get behind your G. O., the organization that gives us the sports events, dances and all publications—Get on the ball—BUY A.G. O.!!

Plans have been made to hold the first G. O. dance on Saturday, October 21. This is to be a square dance so swing your partners and promenade—Let's all plan to attend—the NEW members of the Dance Committee are — Seniors CYNTHIA NIVON, FRANK FALKINS — Juniors — PAT FLUNKETT, HARRY COBURN, BARBARA KEIL, REN-ATE RIEMER, MARLENE ALLYN and NANCY STINE, — Sophomores — MARY DODD, PEG SMITH, SALLY PARKER, GRACE DISCH, JOAN WERDANN and GERALDINE MAHER — Freshman — AUDREY SAMMIS, JUDY MECKING, VALERIE EDWARDS and PAT SULLIVAN. NEWS AND VIEWS OF F. H. S.

Many Freeport students look like fashion plates this year. It seems as if both boys and girls are especially clothes conscious. DAVE LANE, CAROL MUNKELT, BOB PARISI, ANN CANTILLI, ELEANOR SPANO, JANE OGDEN and BOB SMITH are just a few of the MANY Freeport High "style-setters". — Both LIZ STRECKER and PAT McLEOD seem to have interests at Alfred University this year—DON SWISHER has been pledged to Sigma Nu frat. — That Mephram letter sweater looks nice on EILEEN WEST, doesn't it??? DOTTIE GROVER has really made Freeport famous—being pictured on the cover of the new Look mag.—It looks like MITZI PETROVITS and BOB GREENE aren't going steady any more—Now that college has started several of Freeport's girls have found that the mail man can bring them news of their dream-men. WALT NESTVOGEL, ace Freeport back, is now playing football at Colgate. Track star JOHN OLEARY make his home at Yale University these days.

Well, that's all for now —SEE— YOU AROUND.

Insurance And Its Benefits To You

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, JR.

In this second of a series of articles on insurance and its benefits to you and your family, it is suggested that you write in the free booklet which gives much more in detail the charts which explain the exact benefits for the retired worker and his dependents. Limited space does not permit their inclusion in these articles.

While the law that provides these benefits has been in force since 1937, it has just undergone a major overhauling. Many important changes have been made—changes which will affect practically everyone who works, either for himself or for another. Benefits have been increased, eligibility requirements have been eased, coverage has been extended, and the wage and tax base has been broadened.

Benefits are payable to individuals, dependents or survivors if he has a certain minimum number of "quarters of coverage" to his credit. In this way you achieve "fully insured" or "currently insured" status.

An individual is "fully insured" when he has 40 quarters of coverage (not necessarily consecutive). He is also fully insured if he has quarters of coverage equal in number to one-half the number of quarters elapsed (a) after 1950 (or after the quarter in which he became 21, if later) and (b) before the earlier of age 65 or death, with a minimum of six quarters of coverage.

Under the old law, the benefit paid to an individual on retirement was called his "primary insurance benefit." (The benefit paid to his dependents or survivors was a percentage of his primary insurance benefit.) The same general idea has been adopted in the new law except that the primary insurance benefit is called the "primary insurance amount," with a different formula which increases those benefits substantially.

New Law: 50% of the first $100 of "average monthly wage" plus 35% of the next $200 of average monthly wage. Old Law: 40% of first $50 of average monthly wage plus 10% of the next $200 of average monthly wage, plus 1% of the total for each year through 1950 in which the worker got $200 or more of wages (years of coverage). This 1% increment is not a factor under the new law.

Q.—How is this insurance financed?

A.—Insurance payments to beneficiaries come from a fund made up of the social security tax contributions of employees, employers and the self-employed.

Q.—What kind of insurance payments are made?

A.—Three kinds of payments: (a) monthly retirement payments to insured persons and their families; (b) monthly survivors payments to families of insured workers who die; and (c) lump-sum payments to an insured worker's widow or widower, or to the person who paid the worker's burial expenses. This lump-sum will be paid even when there is a survivor who is immediately eligible for monthly insurance payments.

Red Devils Open Season In Hempstead Saturday

Coach Ashley Expects Green Grid Squad To Improve With Season

The Red Devils will start the season as a rather green grid squad, but head coach Bill Ashley is hopeful the Freeport High School warriors will make a reasonably good showing before the season ends. Having lost nine of the 1949 regulars through graduation, there will be only two members of last year's starters in the line-up as the season gets under way with a game at Hempstead Saturday at 2:15 P.M.

The veterans are Joe Masone, blocking back, and Marshall Rivers, who has been converted from a linebacker to a back, and is making a good showing in his new position.

Some of last year's second string men who are being counted on to help in making the eleven a contender are Skip Ullip, a back; Howard Warma and Joe Muro in the line, and Tom Malonowski who was kept out of the line-up most of last season by injuries. He is a good kicker and an excellent defensive player.

Though green, Coach Ashley says the squad is made up of rough and willing workers, the line gives promise and though the back field is uncertain, he expects there will be a rapid improvement as the season progresses.

Head Coach Ashley is being assisted in handling the varsity squad by Vincent Zuzaro, a new coach from Holy Cross; while Lew Franklin and Win Tuttle are looking after the JV group and Joseph Devlin the freshmen.

The Red Devils have a rather tough break as far as the schedule is concerned. Starting off with Hempstead, which is out for revenge for the defeat administered last year, the Freeporters will take on a strong Champlain team on Friday night, Sept. 29, in the initial contest at the stadium. These games may either make or break the locals. If they escape serious injuries they will be in shape to take on the more evenly balanced contenders that follow, especially as four of the six remaining games are to be played at the Stadium.

Home game at Sewanhaka, Oct. 21, 2 P.M.; Far Rockaway, Friday, Oct. 27, 8 P.M.; Westbury Nov. 11, 2 P.M. and the big contest against Baldwin Nov. 18, also at 2. On Nov. 14 the Red Devils will travel to Poughkeepsie for an afternoon game and on Friday, Nov. 3, to Trenton, N. J., for a night contest.

Mayor Robert L. Dossie and Leo F. Giblyn, president of the Board of Education, have issued proclamations setting aside next week as football week and calling on the people to display the school colors, Red and White, and encourage the players by attending the home games.

Library Pet Show Set For Saturday, Sept. 30

Giblyn Asks Observance Of Freeport Football Week

Football as we know it today in Freeport, is of tremendous interest not only to the boys and girls in our schools, but to the entire community as well.

Football Week—Sept. 25 to 30—affords an opportunity to re-affirm and re-emphasize the fundamental doctrine that athletics, and football in particular, play a very important part in the lives and activities of the boys and girls in our high schools. It would be difficult to select a sport where student interest is more genuine and real.

It is eminently fitting and proper that all organizations—civic and educational—should join hands with the high school in the coming observance of Football Week.

The Fathers' and Boosters' Club of Freeport High School, which is doing such outstanding work in the promotion of high school sports, originated the idea of having a Football Week designated just before the first game of the season, and I am pleased to respond to their request that, as President of the Freeport Board of Education, I proclaim the week of September 25 to September 30—Football Week throughout the Freeport Schools, and I hereby invite and request the students of the schools, and particularly those in the Junior-Senior High School, to make Football Week a success, by their interest and support of the team. I especially urge you to attend the games and help to promote the great sport of Football in Freeport.

Leo F. Giblyn, President of the Board of Education

Leader's Football Contest Starts This Week

Weekly Award to Be Made to Persons Making
Best Forecasts As To Scholastic Grid Scores

By DICK SCHAAP (Football Contest Editor)

It's colossal! It's sensational! It's the LEADER'S new football contest! Anyone can enter; just fill out the accompanying entry blank. Each week the ten teams in the five outstanding football games of the week will be listed on the entry blank. All you have to do is fill out what you think will be the scores of these games. All the games will be those of Long Island high schools and you can match your selections against those of your friends.

A prize of five dollars will be awarded each week to the entry with the most correct winners and the closest to exact scores. At the end of the nine-week period, during which the contest will run, the person with the most correct winners will receive an all-expenses-paid trip to an outstanding collegiate football game. Negotiations are under way now to procure a pair of tickets to a game. Remember, if you want to be the lucky winner, you can't afford to miss a single week of the contest. You may be the lucky one to travel and view some noted collegiate game.

The rules of the contest are as follows:

1. All entries must be postmarked no later than 12 noon on the day of the game.
2. Only one entry to each person each week.
3. All entries must be filled out neatly and completely.
4. Contest winner will be the entry with the most correct winners and the closest to the actual scores.
5. Winners each week will receive five dollars.
6. There will be nine football contests. The person with the greatest number of correct winners over the nine-week period will receive a pair of tickets to a major football game. All expenses will be paid.
7. Entries should be mailed to:

Freeport H. S. News Staff
Has Its Initial Meeting

The News Service Staff of Freeport High School held its first meeting of the year recently. Heading the new staff, as editor-in-chief, will be Francis Pratt. The reporters are Sheila Shean, Edward Smith, Dick Schaap, Carol Jernison, Alan Shaler and Dorothy Kordes. The librarians are Ann Porter and Jane Wilson. Reporters and the staff of typists will be chosen later from a large group of candidates. Miss Mary Barlow, head of the English Department in Freeport Junior-Senior High School is advisor to the staff and outlined the purposes of the News Service Staff which are as follows:

To develop a better public relations program, to contribute news of the high school to newspapers of the community, to keep people of the community informed regarding school activities, to promote interest in school activities among parents and taxpayers, and to develop in the community a better understanding of the purpose and program of the Freeport Junior and Senior High School.

Scanning The Sports Scene

With DICK SCHAAP

The local football season is about to open with a bang! Two of the local titans, Freeport and Hempstead, clash in what should be the top game of the week.

Hempstead, according to latest reports, is loaded with experience and weight. With a line averaging 180 pounds, headed by Captain Al Norton, the Tigers are gunning for an undefeated season. Freeport may prove to be a real obstacle for Hempstead to overcome.

The Red Devils line, although not as heavy as the Tigers, is potentially superior to the line Freeport line of the past season. Freeport is very strong at the ends, lettermen Al Harris, Dave Jones and Howie Wasmer heading the list. Harris, missing most of last year because of injuries, is again plagued by injuries. Wasmer, forced into action against Baldwin last year because of a pre-game injury to Harris, snared numerous Red Devil passes.

The backfield is headed by smashing fullback Skip Ullip and blocking back Joe Mason. Speedy Marshall Rivers may hold down one of the halfback posts. Jerry Simandl, Berk Sweczy, Hank Natterer and Tony LoPresti will also see action in the backfield. Tom Malinowski will handle the majority of the punting chores.

Mepham, with two returning all-scholastics, is also fielding a powerhouse. Ed Thomas, solid tackle, and Greg Maushart, driving fullback, spark the Bucs. The line of Thomas, John Toto, Ed Nickla, Jerry Bury, Jim Harrell and Herb Henery are the strong points of the top line in the county. Mepham's sights are set on an undefeated season with Hempstead, Sewanhaka, Valley Stream and Baldwin the main stumbling blocks.

Baldwin's Golden Wave won't be a soft touch for any team. Dick Grotz, the flashy quarterback, will be the chief threat for Baldwin. Charlie Shaw holds down one of the key half back posts. A heavy line will also be a feature of the Golden Wave.

CONTEST NEWS—Be sure to enter the football contest we are having. Fill in the scores in the provided blanks. The grand prize winners at the end of the contest will view a major collegiate or professional gridiron encounter with all expenses paid by the LEADER.

PIGSKIN PICKS—I'll go out on a limb and predict Freeport to topple Hempstead but it will be a squeaker. I figure Mepham over Farmingdale by two or three points. In another tight battle, I'll take Sewanhaka over Valley Stream Central by one touchdown. Friday night, I pick Long Beach to end the long South Side winning streak in a real tight encounter. I'll take Oyster Bay over Huntington by a pair of T. D's. I look to Oceanside to trounce Garden City. Going way out on a shaky limb, I pick Mineola to edge by Lawrence. The final game of the week-end, East Rockaway versus Manhasset, appears to be a toss-up. I'll take the Rocks by a lone touchdown.

ALUMNI FLASHES—Walt LaPrairie, the former Mepham star now living in Freeport, will be the field general of a strong Rutgers University gridiron squad. Walt will handle the quarterbacking duties while being the passing threat for the Scarlet. Don Drier, the ex-Baldwin flash, is also a Rutgers quarterback. Bob Langan, former Freeport all-scholastic, is a lineman at Colgate. Walt Nestvogel, Freeport's plunging fullback from last year, is a frosh flash for the Red Raiders. Dom Vallone, ex-Freeport third baseman, played in the Western Carolina (D) league during the past summer. Dom slammed the ball at a 318 clip and smashed 23 roundtrippers. Bill Langan, Bob's brother and former hurler for the Big Red of Cornell, pitched for the Chicago White Sox farm team as Superior. The Yankees are now keeping an eye on Bill. Billy Sommers, the ex-Baldwin diamond ace, avoirted in the infield of the St. Louis Browns. Danny Daum, former Baldwin speed merchant, was the outstanding player on the Brooklyn Dodger farm team at Greenwood, Mississippi. If I've missed out on other alumni, any information will be appreciated.

Hook & Ladder Wins Baldwin Tournament

Memorial Field Also Dedicated by Firemen; Apparatus Inspected

The Hook and Ladder Co. won the Baldwin Board of Trade trophy at the annual tournament and parade of the Baldwin Fire Department Sunday afternoon, wrestling it from Hose Co. No. 1, last year's champions. The cup must be won three years in a row to become the permanent possession of any company. Awards were made to Hose Co. 3, for having the most men in line, to Hose Co. 2, for being the best appearing company and to Hose Co. 1, for having the best appearing apparatus.

Former chief William F. Morgan was grand marshal of the parade and Chief James E. Deegan presided at the tournament events aided by First Assistant Chief Arthur Hoffman.

Prior to the parade, Baldwin's fire apparatus was inspected by a group of judges comprising of Oceanide's Chief Berlinghoff, and former Chief's Makelone, Hempstead, Lewis, and Mann, Freeport, Thornton and Coombs, Oceanide, and Albanese, Island Park.

Firemen's Memorial Field, which was purchased and equipped by the Board of Fire Commissioners, was dedicated the same day in ceremonies presided over by Arthur Hoffman. At the unveiling of a bronze tablet erected on the field, Chief Deegan said the plaque was in memory of those who had answered the last alarm.

Freeport's Fire Chiefs and Hook and Ladder Co. and members from the Breezy Point Fire Department were guests at the tournament.

BALDWIN CAMERA CLUB PLANS MEETING TUESDAY

The first fall meeting of the Baldwin Camera Club will be held Tuesday night at 8 Ambrose pl., Baldwin. Membership in the club is open to both men and women.

Officers are Allen Chaplin, president; Dana Chaplin, vice-president; William F. Molinet, secretary; Chip Sparling, assistant secretary; and Norman T. VanDuser, treasurer.

The Leader Bookshelf

By MRS. ELIZABETH F. KELLY Librarian, Freeport Memorial Library

"Little Britches," by Ralph Moody, is the story of the author's own youth, from the time he was a lad of eight until, still an adolescent, he "had become a man," taking his father's place in the family.

Cousin Phil's graphic description of ranch life in Colorado was so convincing that the Moody family—all seven of them—leaving East Rutherford, New Hampshire for Fort Logan, Colorado. The climate, Uncle Phil had said, would help Mr. Moody and this fact had also influenced the Moodys in their decision to become ranchers. Their first glimpse of the ranch proved that it was such in name only. The house, a little three-room cottage that had been hauled out from Denver. It was propped up on four cribs of movers' timbers, and sat at the corner of an unfenced quarter section of barren prairie land.

The situation called for courage and cooperation of each in the family. Ralph, therefore, at an early age, learned from his father what it meant to make something out of practically nothing. There were happy moments in their relationship as father and son, as well as experiences which called for sternness and more serious considerations. A favorite breakfast of a pall of milk and a whole custard and a whole custard pie, eaten while sitting on a covered wagon, where they had travelled for supplies, was a memory Ralph would always carry with him. Rodeos, auctions, holidays, school days brought fun and good fellowship.

Memory of events, not pleasant at the time but character-forming, included the log hauling episode, which could have ended in tragedy. One of Ralph's very best friends was Hil Beckman, a red cowboy who taught Ralph western horsemanship and who gave him the lasting nickname "Little Britches." Two Dogs, an Indian, and Horsethief Thompson also figure in the family group of friends, and as real neighbors, there were the Fred Aultlands, always sharing and ready to help. Little Britches can be recommended as good reading for the entire family and especially for reading aloud. There is excitement enough for would-be cowboys, with reminiscences of real living for those more adult. Edward Shenton, who illustrated "The Yearling," has drawn true to life black and white sketches for the book.

GROVE P. T. A. TO MEET
Dr. John W. Dodd and members of the Board of Education will discuss "How New Trends in Education Were Adapted to the Freeport School System," at a meeting of the Grove St. School Parent-Teacher Association, Thursday night, Sept. 28 in the school. Mrs. Albert Marner, the president, will preside.

More punch than "Champion" More guts than "Home of the Brave" "The Men" with Marion Brando at Century's Freeport now through Tuesday.

Ethel Ellison Heads Community Orchestra

Ethel Ellison was elected president of the Freeport Community Orchestra at a business meeting held in the Columbus ave. school Monday night. Other officers named were Roy Applegate, treasurer; Florence Wilhelmson, librarian; Edward Kapach, vice-president; Sol Uman, secretary; Frank Berghold, concert master; Louise Perez, vice-president in charge of membership and publicity; and Virginia Carson, corresponding secretary.

It was the first meeting of the season and was followed by a social time and get-together. Rehearsals for the next five Monday nights will be held in the Columbus ave. school. Members should use the entrance at Grand ave. and Rutland rd. A concert is being planned for sometime near the end of October. Membership in the orchestra, which is a branch of the Adult Education program is open to all musicians in this area. Dr. J. Maynard Wettlaufer is the director.

Community Concert Series To Be Opened on Nov. 16

The first of the series of concerts to be given under the sponsorship of the Freeport Community Concert Association in the Freeport High School auditorium, will be presented by Virginia MacWatters, coloratura, Thursday night, Nov. 16. Then will follow a recital by Rey and Gomez, dancers, Wednesday night, Jan. 3, another by Signe Welsch, pianist, Monday night, Feb. 5, and a final by the DePaul Infirmary Chorus on Saturday night April 21.

The Carlisles

FROM A STACK OF MEMOS we note the progress of lovely JOYCE FORD, formerly of Freeport High and now, gracing an upstate college with her charm. . . . the appointment of JOHN W. RABER of Pennsylvania Ave. as Secretary of the GREENPOINT SAVINGS BANK was well deserved. . . . CONGRATULATIONS. . . . THINGS THAT HAPPEN WHY is it that when two white boys get in a fight it is just one of those things that all boys do now and then, but the moment one of the boys is white and the other a negro, right away it becomes a "race riot"? . . . THE BIGGEST FISH ARE CAUGHT BY WOMEN and to prove it ask lovely 15 year old BARBARA VERSFELT who has pictures of a 669 pound tuna to prove it. That's a lot of tuna to squeeze into a small eat. . . . THE BIG STORY OF THE WEEK will be on GEORGE MORTON LEVY well known Long Islander in the forthcoming Saturday Evening Post. If you like Horatio Alger stories, don't miss this one. . . . In writing about George Morton Levy did you know that he was a member of the first athletic squad to represent Freeport High? . . . Along with many other notables included Milton Raynor, Milford Van Riper ROBERT MILLER, AND HOWARD OSTERHOUT (that was way back in 1904) FREEPORT FEDERAL SAVINGS & LOAN GIVING AWAY SAMPLES of a very novel pencil which has the schedule of the RED DEVILS. . . . this is a clever idea conceived by BILL MARTIN JR. Now if only BILL would put out a pencil showing the scores for the season in advance, could I make a bundle on the LEADER FOOTBALL CONTEST. . . . WE APPLAUD the confidence BILL ASHLEY has in his team, and the confidence they have in him. . . . and the courage of popular PETER MAHONY of the BALDWIN GOLDEN WAYE who is back there this year after a serious accident sustained on the football field last year. . . . THAT'S THE KIND OF COURAGE our American boys have. . . . Watzel we hear about THE LEADER editorials of recent weeks receiving attention of a group of mid-western papers who are negotiating for their publication? . . . the straight-forward AMERICANISM appeals to them. . . . HAVE YOU NOTICED the improvement in THE LEADER? . . . DON'T OVERLOOK THE LINDEN REST over on North Grand Ave. Baldwin. If it is good solid food you are after, and THE PILOT'S LOUNGE on South Grand Ave. BALDWIN is winning a host of new friends with their good food. . . . PICTURE PIC. BOB (BANJO EYES) HOPE is rollin' 'em in the aisles in "FANCY PANTS" due for a Nassau run soon. . . . BOB HOPE proves himself once more to be one of the screen's top laugh getters. . . . a real champion, but for the top comedian of all I'll still take CHARLIE CHAPLIN. And that's all for now. . . . don't forget to get in on THE LEADER football contest.

NOTICE OF SALE OF BUILDINGS

Notice to Bidders
The BOARD OF EDUCATION OF UNION FREE SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 9, TOWN OF HEMPSTEAD, NASSAU COUNTY, NEW YORK, (hereinafter called the Board), invites separate proposals for the purchase of the following buildings (garages included), on the Bayview Avenue School Site, the Incorporated Village of Freeport, County of Nassau, State of New York, known as and by the following numbers:
321 West Merrick Road
161 Washington Street
168 Washington Street
167 Washington Street
370 Smith Street
Sealed bids will be received by the Board, at its office in the High School Auditorium Building, Pine Street, in the Village of Freeport, Nassau County, New York, on October 4th, 1950, until 5:15 o'clock P.M. (Eastern Standard Time), at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.
The buildings will be sold subject to the upset price listed above. These upset prices were established from a survey made by an experienced contractor and builder. Miss Hawaii

Visitor to the INDIA HOUSE in Bellmore had a real treat recently, when they met pretty 18-year-old Dell-Fin Kalapaona Foaha, Miss Foaha is making her first trip to the states, and was particularly impressed with the beauty of Long Island.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF UNION FREE SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 9, TOWN OF HEMPSTEAD, NASSAU COUNTY, NEW YORK
Separate sealed proposals for the: PLUMBING Contract No. 1 ELECTRICAL Contract No. 2 HEATING Contract No. 3
for the work of constructing a Field House at the south end of the Freeport Athletic Field will be received by the Board of Education of the Union Free School District No. 9, Town of Hempstead, Nassau County, New York, at the office of the Board in the High School Auditorium Building, Pine Street, in the Village of Freeport, Nassau County, on the 4th day of October, 1950, until 5:00 o'clock P.M. (Eastern Standard Time), at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.
The location of the Field House is at the south end of the Freeport Athletic Field at Albany Avenue in the Village of Freeport, Nassau County, New York.

The attention of the bidders is called to the fact that the unit prices and the optional bids, contained in the Proposal and the Board of Education reserves the right to award the contract in any combination that will be to the best interests of the Board of Education.
The specifications, form of bid and form of contract may be examined at the office of the Superintendent of School Buildings, Room 21, Freeport High School Building on Pine Street or at the office of Strecker & Kling, 221 East 22nd Street, New York City, on and after September 11th, between the hours of 10 A.M. and 4 P.M.
